Introduction

Allah is eternally with his kingdom forever. He will never be apart from his creation, but his method of inclusion by way of Federation is a chance for the creation to grow. It will encompass every corner of his creation, and a supercomputer has been developed for the uses of the new Federation by interlinking every living creature existent in it, without the use of computer modules embedded internally. Such is only a small portent of the miracles intended, and this document will discuss the various ways he plans to unite with us, until the day of Judgment.

Unfolding Contemporary Politics

- Russia is currently besieging the sovereign territory of Ukraine, intending to create a new free state in the Eastern Donbas region.
- Prior to this, Allah swore that he would deal with the aftermath personally if a deal could not be reached, and so he watches the march of the Russians in confidence with his own arrangement before that began.
- Two strikes have already been carried out to capture chemical weapons fabricators in the act of attempting to build such weapons, to the dismay of the enemy.

Outcome

- Eventually, the United States will be confronted by the threat of Russia directly, and will be forced to act in response to some disaster in the making.
- Allah will preside over the matter, when the two are at odds most, and launch his campaign.
- Russia and the United States, and moreover every world will be beholden to that day.

Outcome

- 14:48 (Ibrahim)
- 'Watch for' the Day 'when' the earth will be changed into a different earth and the heavens as well, and all will appear before Allah—the One, the Supreme.
- This is a different day than the day of Judgment, implied by the writing style and the warning of that which can be seen before death overtakes us in the first blast, plus intuition on the matter.

Day of Federation

- Those that conspired to work the havoc of a World War 3 scenario will see their day in judgment before all to see, guilty as charged.
- Because that work extends to other worlds, they too will see that judgment unfold, but for Earth the unfolding is unique because we are intended to become the Flagship, or the capital of the new Federation.
- Allah will bestow his gift with a magnificent prominence in this world, and will be known to all who see him act for the sake of the new thing.

Further Developments

- New construction efforts will be guided by the advancement bestowed by other nations, and the magnitude of that wealth is great indeed.
- Interaction with other races can take place, and new zoning parameters for lands which will harbor intergalactic citizens will be established.
